

Office Action Summary	Application No. 10/656,888	Applicant(s) VIHMALO ET AL.
	Examiner THANH D. VO	Art Unit 2189

-- The MAILING DATE of this communication appears on the cover sheet with the correspondence address --

Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) OR THIRTY (30) DAYS, WHICHEVER IS LONGER, FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

Status

DETAILED ACTION

1. This Office Action is responsive to the Amendment and the Petition to Withdraw Finality under 37 CRF 1.181 filed on December 10, 2007. Claims 1-10, 14, 15, 17-31, and 37 are presented for examination. Claims 1-10, 14, 15, 17-31, and 37 are pending.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

2. The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

Claims 1-10, 14, 15, 17-31, and 37 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the written description requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to reasonably convey to one skilled in the relevant art that the inventor(s), at the time the application was filed, had possession of the claimed invention.

As per claims 1 and 20, the specification does not particularly disclose the combination of "copying or relocating, for memory wear leveling, the data of at least one first memory block containing at least one memory element of the multi-block memory to at least one second memory block of the multi-block memory" and "wherein no information on a usage of the at least one first memory block, the at least one second memory block or the last lest one memory element is provided for performing said copying or relocating".

On page 11 of the specification of the current invention, it only discloses a method of using constant memory pointer at a logical level and dynamic memory pointers on the physical level to rotate the memory block when a write/read operation is received.

The specification does not disclose a method of "copying the data from one memory block to another memory within a multi-block memory for the method of memory wear leveling without using the information on usage of the first and second or the memory element.

In addition, the specification fails to disclose that "no information on a usage of the at least one first memory block, the at least one second memory block or the at least one memory element is provided". The specification only discloses on page 11, lines 6-7 that "the present invention uses a blind approach in which no information about the actual usage of the memory is needed".

The specification further fails to disclose "one triggering signal comprising only one event for activities of a multi-block memory".

The specification on page 15, lines 10-15 rather discloses that the triggering signal is caused by a triggering event; wherein the triggering event includes read, write or a clock pulses.

All dependent claims are rejected as having the same deficiencies as the claims they depend from.

Appropriate correction is required.

3. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claims 1-10, 14, 15, 17-31, and 37 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Claims 1 is indefinite because it unclear whether claim 1 is claiming that there is only one event, wherein the only one event occurs only once for the activities of a multi-block memory OR there is only one event, wherein the only one event can occurs many times for the activities of a multi-block memory.

Claim 20 is rejected under the same rationale of claim 1.

All dependent claims are rejected as having the same deficiencies as the claims they depend from.

Appropriate correction is required.

Conclusion

4. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
